Humboldt, Kansas 66748

Friday, September 10, 2010	10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.
Saturday, September 11, 2010	10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

This exhibit celebrates over 50 years of Humboldt, Kansas history of the Mexican men, women and their children who lived in the Monarch Cement Company houses on a street known as Cement Road.

Their existence is documented in the memories and old photographs of the Mexican families who lived this reality.

Join us as we also pay homage to the Mexican men and women who served their country through military service.
